If your child is eligible to come back on the 14-15 of June for 75 minutes of remediation and a retake of the test. ● We are so happy to have parents back in the building for WATCH Dogs, Celebration of Brilliance, Kindergarten Orientation, International Night ● New Building Update: Is that still scheduled for 2023? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The last I heard was the date of our last PTA meeting. They are still in negotiations with the Town of Cary. Sometime this summer they will have a community meeting. It will go before the board early August. That August board meeting is just preliminary - not a final design. Due to the delays, Swift Creek will be at the school for a full two years. We will not have the disruption coming back in the middle of the school year. ○ We will be relocated down Tryon Road, about 10 minutes. It is a former movie theater complex that has been renovated into a school.
